

The frame for mobile saw TKSF-L

The frame for packages with a max. length of 6m enables to use the mobile saw TKSF-L also in stationary execution, without removing of wheels. The saw has to be pushed manually in both directions. It has to be protected against displacement before cutting. Vertical supports on the frame enable precise positioning of the packs during loading.